THE GENTLE SWIMMERS.

A New York Herald reporter last Tuesday visited Miss Bennett's swimming-school for ladies, on Seventh avenue and Fifty-ninth street. After considerable space devoted to an account of his sensations on arriving, he says:

The tank in which the Misses Bennett and their picked pupils display their aquatic accomplishments is 90 feet long by 29 wide, and runs from 3 to 9 feet in depth. It is constantly supplied with fresh water, which is turned into it through countless little jets. At the time the Herald representative arrived there were some twenty-five ladies disporting in the tank, the chief of whom were the Misses Bennett, the Misses Clark and Magonigle. These were, in fact, all expert swimmers, and they plunged and floated and swam around like very tadpoles, while they looked like the nymphs of ancient story, save that those nymphs did not wear Turkish trousers and sailor shirts. The Misses Bennett carried the palm for daring and dexterity. They jumped off of high places and dived down so far out of sight that the reporter thought for a moment that the Franklin search party would be obliged to look them up, but finally they came to the top, spluttering and spouting like baby whales. Then they lay on their backs and floated, laughing and talking, and enjoying themselves thoroughly. In fact, every one in the tank laughed, the water seemed to have such an exhilarating effect. And one who uses his bath tub full of water will recall the sensation that makes him gurgle in his tub. So impressed were the lookers-on with the advantages of being able to swim that a class of eleven young ladies was formed on the spot. "You see," said Miss Kate Bennett, "that I am as much at home in the water as upon the land, indeed, more so, for here I hop, skip, and jump about, while I simply walk quietly along on land," and with that she slapped the water with her right hand, then with her left, disappeared, and in a moment came up at the other end of the tank between two blonde bathers, who gave little shriks of surprise and darted out of her way.

One of the prettiest sights during the exhibition was the swimming of a 4 year old little girl whom they called "Birdie," but whom they might, with greater propriety, called "Fishy." She could swim with the best of them. "Come, 'Birdie,' show the ladies how you can dive," said Miss Bennett, and without any coaxing, the little thing mounted the railing, clasped her tiny hands over her curly head, and—

> In she plunged boldly,
> No matter how coldly
> The leaden tank looked

Down went the little head, up went the little heels, then flip flap went the little arms, and away swam the brave child as graceful and as coolly as a swan in the Central Park lake. Miss Bennett caught her in her wet arms, and squeezed a gallon or two of water from her clothes as she pressed her to her heart in kindly admiration. Again and again the child repeated the feat, each time laughing and shouting in the greatness of her enjoyment. Then the Misses Bennett gave few fancy touches, the twenty-five nymphs came dripping from the tank, and the day's sport was over

The Kankakee Gazette, in speaking of the parliamentary skill displayed by Mr. Cannon in defeating the $300,000 Brazilian subsidy scheme, which the Senate tacked on to the post-route bill, says: "Give us some more armament of that kind. Mr Cannon, a Republican member from the fourteenth Illinois district, defeated the $300,000 a year Brazilian subsidy scheme. The Senate had hitched it on the post office bill, where it did not belong, even if it had been a proper appropriation. Mr. Cannon raised this question on it in the House and sent it into coventry. Hurrah for that kind of Cannon! It is a pity there are not a dozen fully equipped batteries of the same kind of pieces

A purely vegetable distillation entirely unlike all other remedies.

IN the preparation of this remarkable remedy every herb, plant, and bark is subjected to distillation, whereby the essential medical principle is obtained in vapor, condensed and bottled. What remains in the still is inert, valueless, and totally unfit for use in an organism so delicate as the nasal passages. Yet all snuffs are insoluble compounds of woody fibre; all tinctures, saturated solutions.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Is a local and constitutional remedy, as it is applied to the nasal passages by insufflation, thus allaying inflammation and pain and at once correcting, cleansing, and purifying the secretions. It is really administered, it acts upon the organs of circulation, keeps the skin moist, and neutralizes the acid poison that has found its way into the stomach and thence into the blood. Thus a cure progresses in both directions, and it does not seem possible for human ingenuity to devise a more rational treatment.

SURPRISING CURE.

Gentlemen,—About twelve years ago, while travelling with Father Kemp's Old Folks Concert Troupe as a tenor singer, I took a severe cold and was laid up at Newark, N. J. This cold brought on a severe attack of Catarrh, which I battled with every known remedy for four weeks without avail, and was finally obliged to give up a most desirable position and return home, unable to sing a note. For three years afterwards I was unable to sing at all. The first attack of Catarrh had left my nasal organs and throat so sensitive that the slightest cold would bring on a fresh attack, leaving me prostrated. In this way I continued to suffer. The last attack, the severest I ever had, was terrible. I suffered the most excruciating pain in my head, was so hoarse as to be scarcely able to speak, and coughed incessantly. I thought I was going into quick consumption and I truly believe that had these symptoms continued without relief they would have rendered me an easy victim. When in this distressing condition, I commenced the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, very reluctantly, I confess, as I had tried all the advertised remedies without benefit. The first dose of this wonderful medicine gave me the greatest relief. It is hardly possible for one who so head ached, eyes ache, who can scarcely articulate distinctly on account of the choking accumulations in his throat, to realize how much relief I obtained from the first application of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. Under its influence, both internal and external, I rapidly recovered, and by an occasional use of the remedy since, have been entirely free from Catarrh, for the first time in twelve years.
Respectfully yours,
GEO. W. HOLBROOK.

VOLTAIC PLASTER

An Electro-Galvanic Battery combined with a highly Medicated Plaster containing the choicest medicinal Gums and Balsams known to modern Pharmacy.

These Plasters have now been before the public for two years, and, notwithstanding the immense number of remedies in the form of liniments, lotions, pain-curers, and ordinary plasters, they have steadily increased in sale and met with universal approval, as evidenced by over one thousand unsolicited testimonials in our possession. Many remarkable cases have been certified to by well-known citizens in all parts of the United States, copies of which will be sent free of charge to any one desiring them. Improvements, in many ways, have been made, as suggested by experience and use, until it is believed that they are now perfect in every respect, and the best plaster in the world of medicine. All we ask from every sufferer in the land is a single trial. The price is 25 cents, although the cost is double that of any other plaster. But, notwithstanding the efforts of the proprietors to make the best plaster in the world for the least money, any similar remedy can be bought, numbers of unscrupulous dealers will be found ready to misrepresent them for selfish motives and endeavor to substitute others. THE GENTLE SWIMMERS.

A New York Herald reporter last Tuesday visited Miss Bennett's swimming-school for ladies, on Seventh avenue and Fifty-ninth street. After considerable space devoted to an account of his sensations on arriving, he says:

The tank in which the Misses Bennett and their picked pupils display their aquatic accomplishments is 90 feet long by 20 wide and runs from 3 to 9 feet in depth. It is constantly supplied with fresh water, which is turned into it through countless little jets. At the time the Herald representative arrived there were some twenty-five ladies disporting in the tank, the chief of whom were the Misses Bennett, the Misses Clark and Magonigle. These were, in fact, all expert swimmers, and they plunged and floated and swam around like very tadpoles, while they looked like the nymphs of ancient story, save that those nymphs did not wear Turkish trousers and sailor shirts. The Misses Bennett carried the palm for daring and dexterity. They jumped off of high places and dived down so far out of sight that the reportor thought for a moment that the Franklin search party would be obliged to look them up, but finally they came to the top, spluttering and spouting like baby whales. Then they lay on their backs and floated, laughing and talking, and enjoying themselves thoroughly. In fact, every one in the tank laughed, the water seemed to have such an exhilarating effect. And one who uses his bath tub full of water will recall the sensation that makes him gurgle in his tub. So impressed were the lookers-on with the advantages of being able to swim that a class of eleven young ladies was formed on the spot. "You see," said Miss Kate Bennett, "that I am as much at home in the water as upon the land; indeed, more so, for here I hop, skip, and jump about, while I simply walk quietly along on land," and with that she slapped the water with her right hand, then with her left, disappeared, and in a moment came up at the other end of the tank between two blonde bathers, who gave little shriks of surprise and darted out of her way.

One of the prettiest sights during the exhibition was the swimming of a 4 year-old little girl whom they called "Birdie," but whom they might, with greater propriety, called "Fishy." She could swim with the best of them. "Come, 'Birdie,' show the ladies how you can dive," said Miss Bennett, and without any coaxing, the little thing mounted the railing, clasped her tiny hands over her curly head, and—

In she plunged boldly,
No matter how coldly
The leaden tank looked.

Down went the little head, up went the little heels, then flip-flap went the little arms, and away swam the brave child as graceful and as coolly as a swan in the Central Park lake. Miss Bennett caught her in her wet arms, and squeezed a gallon or two of water from her clothes as she pressed her to her heart in kindly admiration. Again and again the child repeated the feat, each time laughing and shouting in the greatness of her enjoyment. Then the Misses Bennett gave few fancy touches, the twenty-five nymphs came dripping from the tank, and the day's sport was over.

THE Kankakee Gazette, in speaking of the parliamentary skill displayed by Mr. Cannon in defeating the $300,000 Brazilian subsidy scheme, which the Senate tacked on to the post-route bill, says: "Give us some more armament of that kind. Mr. Cannon, a Republican member from the fourteenth Illinois district, defeated the $300,000 a year Brazilian subsidy scheme. The Senate had hitched it on the post office bill, where it did not belong, even if it had been a proper appropriation. Mr. Cannon raised this question on it in the House and sent it into coventry. Hurrah for that kind of Cannon! It is a pity there are not a dozen fully equipped batteries of the same kind of pieces."

A purely vegetable distillation entirely unlike all other remedies.

IN the preparation of this remarkable remedy every herb, plant, and bark is subjected to distillation, whereby the essential medical principle is obtained in vapor, condensed and bottled. What remains in the still is inert, valueless, and totally unfit for use in an organism so delicate as the nasal passages. Yet all snuffs are insoluble compounds of woody fibre; all tinctures, saturated solutions.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Is a local and constitutional remedy. As it is applied to the nasal passages by insufflation, thus allaying inflammation and pain and all ... spreading, cleansing, and purifying the secretions ... administered, it acts upon the organs of elimination, ... keeps the skin moist, and neutralizes ... poison that has found its way into the stomach and thence into the blood. Thus a cure progresses in both directions, and it does not seem possible for human ingenuity to devise a more rational treatment.

SURPRISING CURE.

Gentlemen,—About twelve years ago, while travelling with Father Kemp's Old Folks Concert Troupe as a tenor singer, I took a severe cold and was laid up at Newark, N. J. This cold brought on a severe attack of Catarrh, which I battled with every known remedy for four weeks without avail, and was finally obliged to give up a most desirable position and return home, unable to sing a note. For three years afterwards I was unable to sing at all. The first attack of Catarrh had left my nasal organs and throat so sensitive that the slightest cold would bring on a fresh attack, leaving me prostrated. In this way I continued to suffer. The last attack, the severest I ever had, was terrible. I suffered the most excruciating pain in my head, was so hoarse as to be scarcely able to speak, and coughed incessantly. I ... I was going into quick consumption, and I ... believe that had these symptoms continued without relief they would have rendered me an easy victim. When in this distressing condition, I commenced the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, very reluctantly, I confess, as I had tried all the advertised remedies without benefit. The first dose of this wonderful medicine gave me the greatest relief. It is hardly possible for one whose head ached, eyes ..., who can scarcely articulate distinctly on account of the choking accumulations in his throat, to realize how much relief I obtained from the first application of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. Under its influence, both internal and external, I rapidly recovered, and by an occasional use of the remedy since, have been entirely free from Catarrh, for the first time in twelve years.

Respectfully yours, GEO. W. HOLBROOK.

GEO. SCROGGS, Chairman.
H. W. MAGEE, Sec'y.

HOW HE TOLD THE NEWS.

Col. George Scroggs, the [illegible] editor of the Champaign Gazette, has a span of spirited horses, behind which he is wont to take an airing occasionally, and on whose speed and bottom he never tires of descanting. Yesterday the gallant colonel, after combing his auburn locks and giving his fiery burnsides an extra brushing, started out to give a lady friend a bit of a buggy ride, but before reaching the residence of the fair one those aforesaid spirited horses took it into their heads to run away, and off they went. The colonel took an extra reef at the ribbons, and in his most eloquent tones demanded that the column should halt. He planted his number eleven boot against the dash-board and threw his head back towards the rear axle of the buggy, at the imminent risk of snapping his vertebral column. He shouted "Whoa" in tones that Prof. Sample might envy, but the noble steeds were deaf to his entreaties. They just kept on going, and finally, when they had exhausted their own playfulness, and taken the starch entirely out of their owner's collar (as well as out of his entire physical being,) they [illegible] fronted up to the residence of the lady who was to have been the recipient of the Colonel's favor, where the poor victim of misplaced confidence (in horse-flesh) was taken out more dead than alive. Restoratives were applied, and [illegible] the tender ministrations of the sympathetic fair one he was resuscitated. Upon reflection he began to dread the conundrums which he knew would be propounded to him, and in order to escape the task of answering them he sent an order to the printing office to have the necessary answers printed on a card. One of these cards is before us, and this is the way it reads:

ALL ABOUT IT.

Yes, my team ran away with me on Friday, June 28, 1878.

They got frightened at a woman who gave an umbrella an extra flourish.

They ran about two and a half miles before I succeeded in stopping them.

They started near the residence of Matthew D. Busey; ran south to Green street; east on Green street to a little short street that runs north to the I., B. & W. round-house; northward on that to the Main street of Urbana, and eastward on this road to the county poor-house.

Yes, I finally stopped them, but my particular attention was given to keeping them in the road, avoiding other teams and making bridges, culverts and turns in good shape.

I didn't get hurt, nor break anything.

No one was in the buggy with me

Am very glad nobody ran out into the road and tried to stop them, as, in that case, I should have been dumped out.

No, I wasn't frightened.

The team is not for sale, therefore I don't care what your opinion may be of the effect upon their marketable value.

Send that team down to Decatur George, to be educated. Prof. Sample is not here now, but he has lots of disciples who can take the devil out of your horses as easily and as neatly as Joe Cannon can beat Malden Jones.

AN ASTONISHING FACT.

A large proportion of the American people are to-day suffering from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.

DEATH OF JUDGE BREESE.

The telegraph brings the news of the death of Sidney Breese, late chief justice of the supreme court of Illinois, which took place at Pinckneyville on Thursday night. The cause of his death was heart disease, which prostrated the venerable jurist at four o'clock on the afternoon of Thursday, and resulted fatally in seven and a half hours afterwards.

Sidney Breese was born on the 15th of July, 1800, at Whitesboro, Oneida county, N. Y. He received a thorough classical education at Union College, Schenectady, from which he graduated in 1818. In 1821 he was appointed postmaster at Kaskaskia and in 1822 was appointed attorney of the second circuit. In 1831 he published Breese's reports of the supreme court decisions—the first book ever published in the state. In 1832 he served as Major in the famous Blackhawk war, rising to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, and was recognized as a brave and intrepid officer. In 1835, on the establishment of the circuit court system in this state, he was chosen judge of the second circuit, retaining the position till 1841, when he was chosen one of the supreme judges. In 1842 he was chosen United States senator, for a full term, from March 4, 1843. In 1850 he was elected to the state legislature and subsequently chosen speaker of the House—[illegible] eminently qualified to [illegible]. He was again elected circuit judge and two years later, upon the resignation of Judge Scates, was again elevated to the supreme bench, where he has since remained, reaching in rotation the position of chief justice, which he has filled for two terms.

By his numerous able opinions while in that exalted position, Judge Breese secured the lasting regard and confidence of the people of his adopted state, and especially of the members of the bar, who looked up to him as the exemplar of the ethics of their chosen profession. In all that appertained to his office his deportment and action were invariably characterized by courtesy and unswerving impartiality. His opinions and judgment have received in numerous instances the highest commendation, while his reputation for spotless integrity has never been questioned.

While serving in Congress Senator Breese took decided ground in favor of the annexation of Texas, vigorously advocated our title to Oregon up to the line of 50 deg., 40 min., and advised the carrying of the war with Mexico into the heart of the country. A bill was introduced by him and pushed to its passage, providing for the sale by the government of the lead mines of the country, the same as other lands.—To Senator Breese is also due the credit of originating the law repealing the five years of exemption from taxation after sale of the public lands of the United States, so that the public lands, when sold, became immediately taxable. Thus, by stimulating enterprise, and at the same time increasing the revenues of the state, and that at a time of financial prostration and disorder, these acts were of the utmost importance. He also advocated the passage of the land-grants for a central railroad, a project which he originated in 1835. He likewise made a very able report to Congress in favor of a grant of land from Lake Michigan to the Pacific Ocean, being the first public recognition of such an enterprise.

Judge Breese, in fine, was a finished scholar, a profound jurist, a gentleman of the olden type, a useful citizen and an honest man. Hon. E. B. Washburne, some years ago, in a historic sketch of the late Charles S. Hempstead, of Galena, Ill., alluded to Judge Breese in the following fitting words:

Scarcely a prominent public man of that day (1829) is now alive. One who survives is the venerable Judge Breese, of the supreme court of the state. It is safe to say that there is not now a man in the state who knows as much of its early history as he does. No man now living has been so thoroughly identified with all its history, has been so much a part of it, and at the bar, in the Senate, House, and on the bench, has so long and ably illustrated its annals. The reports of the Supreme Court attest his profound knowledge of the law, the ripeness of his scholarship, and the peculiar grace of his diction. No Judge who ever sat on the bench could touch the very heart and soul of a lawsuit with more unerring certainty, and his opinions will live as long as the jurisprudence of the state shall exist.

On the 4th of September, 1823, he was united in marriage to Miss Eliza Morrison, second daughter of William Morrison, who moved from Pennsylvania to Kaskaskia in 1790, and became the most extensive and enterprising merchant in his day in the Mississippi valley.]

The Judge leaves a wife and several children, one of whom, his only son, is an officer of the navy.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer inquires if this "cheering for General Grant cannot be stopped." The same fellows who are making complaint about Grant's noise now, stopped it in 1865 by stacking their arms and agreeing to submit to the Constitution and abide by the laws of the land. They might do it again in the same way. The people intend to have peace, and Grant is a great man for peace.—Inter-Ocean.

THE first car-load of new No. 1 red Winter wheat of this year's crop was sold in this market to-day. It was received from Southern Illinois by Pope & Davis, and by them sold at 95 cents per bushel on the track. The same parties also received the first car-load last season, which brought $1.50 per bushel. The above figures show a wonderful difference in the value of this cereal at the opening of the two seasons. —Chicago Journal.

GRANT [illegible].

From the Danville News.

[illegible] morning of the 26th instant, while standing in a crowd in front of the Leland Hotel, Springfield, the Macon delegation, headed by a band of music, marched down the street to the hotel, with a transparency on which were several sentences, all referring to Grant. One read,

[illegible]

This was hailed with great enthusiasm by the crowd, and given three cheers.—In the [illegible] the Grant Glee Club sang a [illegible] original and timely—referring to "Mrs. Jenks," the Potter Committee, &c., the chorus of which was

GRANT IS COMING! COMING!! COMING!!!

This song was received with uproarious applause by the convention and [illegible]. [illegible] to those who had the least power of observation that the Grant tide is sweeping Illinois before it, and that he is to-day the unanimous choice of the state for the presidential contest of 1880.

The fact is, the name of Grant is in the air; the Grant tide is swelling grandly through the country, and indications are that the great American general and statesman will be the nominee of the Republican party in 1880, and will, for the third time, bear the old standard to victory.

I am done. I don't want nothin more. Bascom dons nothin but look at his slate, the accounts of which will never be paid, and weep, and Deekin Pogram hean't spoke an intelligible word sinse the fatle news struck him. There is a gloom settled onto the Corners the like of wich I havn't seen since Lee surrendered. It don't matter to me whether Tilden or some one else is the Dimocratic nominee in 1880.—The disappointment hez so weighed on to my mind that long before 1880 I shel be in the silent tomb, and it don't matter to me who succeeds Hayes. I can't live ez I hev bin, and the sooner I die the better. Hunsaring ain't got no muscle nor much intellect. It's flabby. It won't survive me long.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY,

IT is not out of the usual course for the members of Potter's Greasers, and their ally, the Chicago Times, to sneer and ridicule the person of General Noyes. The General was unfortunate enough to lose a leg in the, to them, unholy cause of defending the Union, and it gives them ample reason to call him "the red-faced, beefy, shambling specimen of cheap-John politician"—The facts are General Noyes is the peer of any of his defamers upon that committee. He could beat any of them in an argument, and he could whale the whole cowardly committee with his crutch. He may have a "shambling" walk. That is because Democrats shot off his leg, and he has to use a wooden substitute. The vulgar allusions to his misfortune by members of the committee will not add to their reputation.—The Potter crowd have maligned the name of Gov. Noyes, and he has come a long distance to answer their questions. Let them proceed to their work like men, and not try to cry him down like a lot of blackguards.—Inter-Ocean.

SAYS the Elmira (N. Y.) Advertiser: Ladies who can talk in four languages, and gentlemen who can dance in ten, are very ornamental and they are very expensive, but it seldom happens that they are of any practical use in the world, and when hard times come they are a cumbrance on the earth. Young men with education but no profession or trade, and with families of children to care for, to say nothing of wives who are as fearfully and wonderfully educated as themselves, cannot add much to the prosperity of the county. Their usefulness has been blasted in the very effort to promote it.

REV. MR. NOURSE, the Springfield clergyman, who concluded his prayer at the opening of the Republican state convention, on Wednesday, by appealing to the Almighty that "the best men may be nominated," and, after being nominated, "that they may be elected," was applauded, the convention evidently indorsing the sentiment. In a conversation with some friends afterwards, the honest clergyman explained that he was a Republican, conscientiously believed in that party, and thought it a duty to pray for its success publicly as well as privately. He is right.—(Chicago Journal.

ENJOY LIFE.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means for enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worried out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint is the direct cause of 75 per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

POTTERING OVER FLORIDA.

Minister Noyes on the Stand.

His Story of the Count.

Death of Judge Breese.

FOREIGN NEWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 28.—The Potter Committee appointed Messrs. Hunton, McMahon, Springer, Butler and Hiscock a sub-committee to remain in Washington and take testimony. Messrs. Potter, Morrison and Cox will act as a relief for it and the sub-committee in New Orleans.

At the session to-day L. E. Dennis resumed his story. He said that Box No. 2 of the Archer precinct, Alachua county, Fla., was objected to by the Democrats on account of alleged fraud. The inspector of the polls had, in a confidential conversation with the witness, admitted that there had been 219 fraudulent names added to the list of voters, and his knowledge of this fact was partially the cause of his declining to testify as requested by Gov. Noyes. The addition of these 219 names was a matter of public notoriety.

The witness was appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury as an employe in the secret service. His instructions were to examine the records of the United States Courts in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. After resigning this position he was appointed an agent of the internal revenue department, but his commission was canceled before he entered upon the duties of that office.

The letter of recommendation written by Gov. Noyes was submitted. It is a formal letter of recommendation to Secretary Sherman, mentioning the witness as one of the many Republicans who were ostracised in Florida, and commending his application to the consideration of the Secretary.

The witness never knew of Governor Noyes having put in evidence before the Returning Board anything excepting facts as furnished him. It was the idea of the Southern Republican to impress upon the minds of Northern Republicans that everything was fair and honest in Florida.

To Mr. Butler—The witness believed that the returns in Archer precinct should have shown 219 votes in excess of what they did for the Republican party. The Republican officers made up the deficiency from the registration book, so as to make the returns show their proper number of votes. He believed there had been fraud on both sides. When the votes were turned out of a box the missing number of Republican votes appeared as having been legally cast.

Mr. Dennis was instructed to hold himself in readiness to appear before the Committee at its call, it having been decided that the matter of the manipulation of votes in Alachua county was not yet closed.

Edward F. Noyes, United States Minister to France, testified that he was in attendance upon the Canvassing Board in Florida during the last Presidential election. He did not go at the request or with the knowledge of Governor Hayes, and while there did not receive either telegrams, letters or communication of any sort from Governor Hayes. He took a legal part in the proceedings of the canvass, arguing cases before the Board of Canvassers, etc. He undertook to find out the facts relating to the alleged frauds in Alachua county, Archer Precinct, No. 2, and, owing to parties swearing one way and immediately thereafter directly opposite, he lost all confidence in them, but, finally, from diligent inquiry and the consistent testimony of some forty or fifty Republicans that they had voted the Republican ticket, he reached the honest conclusion that the count as returned was correct. He had asked Dennis to be a witness. He (Dennis) had proved the correctness of the vote in question to the satisfaction of the witness. He did not doubt Dennis' word that he intended to impress upon his (Noyes') mind that it would not be safe for him to go on the stand for the Republicans, owing to his knowledge of the fraud, but that he (witness) could now solemnly swear that no such impression was conveyed by the remarks of Dennis, and Gen. Wallace, who was present at the time, was now in the committee room, and would corroborate his (Noyes) statement. Witness pronounced the statement made by General Cooke before the Florida sub-committee that he (witness), Cowgil, McLin and Gov. Stearns were locked together in the room of the secretary of state before the meeting of the board, an unqualified falsehood. He had no private conference with any of those gentlemen that required locked doors, and with McLin he had no private conference at all.

Gov. Noyes then submitted in evidence two letters written to him by McLin in a very friendly spirit, in which he pictured very elaborately the frauds practiced by the Democrats, and the light which he experienced upon learning the success of the Republican party, and embracing in the last letter the request that the witness should aid him in securing the position of district judge of Florida.

[illegible], June 28.—A Berlin dispatch states that at the sitting of the congress Gortschakoff was present. It was decided, in accordance with a proposal of the Turkish plenipotentiaries, to entrust Austria's task of occupying Bosnia and Herzegovina in the interest of peace, to Europe; the duration of occupation not being fixed, and full liberty being left to Austria in regard to the organization of the provinces. It is believed, however, she will follow plans drawn up at the Constantinople conference. The Congress unanimously adopted a proposal of French plenipotentiaries that Europe should refuse to recognize the independence of Servia unless Servian Jews were relieved from present disabilities. The congress decided to appoint a commission to examine into the question of the aggrandizement of Servia. The aggrandizement of Montenegro will probably be referred to a commission. The congress will meet the views of Greek plenipotentiaries. The general impression in high Russian circles is that the congress will result in temporary relief, but not in a real settlement.

Gortschakoff will remain in Berlin for the present.

LA SALLE, ILL., June 28.—Yesterday afternoon the idle coal miners held a meeting at their hall, at which they were addressed by Mayor McLaughlin, of Braidwood, who advised them to hold no more meetings upon the premises of the Union Coal Company, nor do or say anything that would make them amenable to the charge of intended intimidation. Soon after the meeting, Sheriff Stephens served a circuit court writ of injunction upon the president of the miners' union and eight of the leaders, very strongly enjoining them from any interference with the working miners or the business of any coal-mining company. The miners are holding another meeting at the public square this afternoon.

The La Salle Light Guards again escorted the working miners to the Union shaft this morning, but there was no disturbance. It is generally thought there will be no further trouble here.

NEW YORK, June 28.—A letter from Havana says the campaign of the Spaniards against the Cubans, without any battles, cost the former 80,000 men, and the island is a vast cemetery. Five steamers are reported on the way from Spain to carry home troops. Martinez Campos had begun a reduction of government expenses on the island by giving up one-half of his own salary as a Captain General.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Senator Kellogg has been excused from attendance upon the Potter committee until July 7th, or until he has made a visit to Chicago.

It was decided at the Cabinet meeting, to day, to detail Major William J. Twining, to be District of Columbia Commissioner from the Engineer corps of the army, as provided for by the new permanent government law. Major Twining is a native of Indiana.

HOW HE TOLD THE NEWS.

Col. George Scroggs, the [illegible] editor of the Champaign Gazette, has a span of spirited horses, behind which he is wont to take an airing occasionally, and on whose speed and bottom he never tires of descanting. Yesterday the gallant colonel, after combing his auburn locks and giving his fiery burnsides an extra brushing, started out to give a lady friend a bit of a buggy ride, but before reaching the residence of the fair one those aforesaid spirited horses took it into their heads to run away, and off they went. The colonel took an extra reef at the ribbons, and in his most eloquent tones demanded that the column should halt. He planted his number eleven boot against the dash-board and threw his head back towards the rear axle of the buggy, at the imminent risk of snapping his vertebral column. He shouted "Whoa" in tones that Prof. Sample might envy, but the noble steeds were deaf to his entreaties. They just kept on going, and finally, when they had exhausted their own playfulness, and taken the starch entirely out of their owner's collar (as well as out of his entire physical being,) they [illegible] to the residence of the lady who was to have been the recipient of the Colonel's favor, where the poor victim of misplaced confidence (in horse flesh) was taken out more dead than alive. Restoratives were applied, and under the the tender ministrations of the sympathetic fair one he was resuscitated. Upon reflection he began to dread the conundrums which he knew would be propounded to him, and in order to escape the task of answering them he sent an order to the printing office to have the necessary answers printed on a card. One of these cards is before us, and this is the way it reads:

ALL ABOUT IT.

Yes, my team ran away with me on Friday, June 28, 1878.

They got frightened at a woman who gave an umbrella an extra flourish.

They ran about two and a half miles before I succeeded in stopping them.

They started near the residence of Matthew D. Busey; ran south to Green street; east on Green street to a little short street that runs north to the I., B. & W. round-house; northward on that to the Main street of Urbana, and eastward on that road to the county poor-house.

Yes, I finally stopped them, but my particular attention was given to keeping them in the road, avoiding other teams and making bridges, culverts and turns in good shape.

I didn't get hurt, nor break anything.

No one was in the buggy with me

Am very glad nobody ran out into the road and tried to stop them, as, in that case, I should have been dumped out.

No, I wasn't frightened.

The team is not for sale, therefore I don't care what your opinion may be of the effect upon their marketable value.

Send that team down to Decatur George, to be educated. Prof. Sample is not here now, but he has lots of disciples who can take the devil out of your horses as easily and as neatly as Joe Cannon can beat Malden Jones.

AN ASTONISHING FACT.

A large proportion of the American people are to-day suffering from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower, your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.

DEATH OF JUDGE BREESE.

The telegraph brings the news of the death of [illegible] Breese, [illegible] justice of the supreme court of Illinois, which took place at Pinckneyville on Thursday night. The cause of his death was heart disease, which prostrated the venerable jurist at four o'clock on the afternoon of Thursday, and resulted fatally in seven and a half hours afterward.

Sidney Breese was born on the 15th of July, 1800, at Whitesboro, Oneida county, N. Y. He received a thorough classical education at Union College, Schenectady, from which he graduated in 1818. In 1821 he was appointed postmaster at Kaskaskia, and in 1822 was appointed attorney of the second circuit. In 1831 he published Breese's reports of the supreme court decisions—the first book ever published in the state. In 1832 he served as Major in the famous Blackhawk war, rising to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, and was recognized as a brave and intrepid officer. In 1835, on the establishment of the circuit court system in this state, he was chosen judge of the second circuit, retaining the position till 1841, when he was chosen one of the supreme judges. In 1842 he was chosen United States senator, for a full term, from March 4, 1843. In 1850 he was elected to the state legislature and subsequently chosen speaker of the House—a position he was eminently qualified to fill. He [illegible] was again elected circuit judge, and two years later, upon the resignation of Judge Scates, was again elevated to the supreme bench, where he has since remained, reaching in rotation the position of chief justice, which he has filled for two terms.

By his numerous able opinions while in that exalted position, Judge Breese secured the lasting regard and confidence of the people of his adopted state, and especially of the members of the bar, who looked up to him as the exemplar of the ethics of their chosen profession. In all that appertained to his office his deportment and action were invariably characterized by courtesy and unswerving impartiality. His opinions and judgment have received in numerous instances the highest commendation, while his reputation for spotless integrity has never been questioned.

While serving in Congress Senator Breese took decided ground in favor of the annexation of Texas, vigorously advocated our title to Oregon up to the line of 50 deg., 40 min., and advised the carrying of the war with Mexico into the heart of the country. A bill was introduced by him and pushed to its passage, providing for the sale by the government of the lead mines of the country, the same as other lands.—To Senator Breese is also due the credit of originating the law repealing the five years of exemption from taxation after sale of the public lands of the United States, so that the public lands, when sold, became immediately taxable. Thus, by stimulating enterprise, and at the same time increasing the revenues of the state, and that at a time of financial prostration and disorder, these acts were of the utmost importance. He also advocated the passage of the land-grants for a central railroad, a project which he originated in 1835. He likewise made a very able report to Congress in favor of a grant of land from Lake Michigan to the Pacific Ocean, being the first public recognition of such an enterprise.

Judge Breese, in fine, was a finished scholar, a profound jurist, a gentleman of the olden type, a useful citizen and an honest man. Hon. E. B. Washburne, some years ago, in a historic sketch of the late Charles S. Hempstead, of Galena, Ill., alluded to Judge Breese in the following fitting words:

Scarcely a prominent public man of that day (1829) is now alive. One who survives is the venerable Judge Breese, of the supreme court of the state. It is safe to say that there is not now a man in the state who knows as much of its early history as he does. No man now living has been so thoroughly identified with all its history, has been so much a part of it, and at the bar, in the Senate, House, and on the bench, has so long and ably illustrated its annals. The reports of the Supreme Court attest his profound knowledge of the law, the ripeness of his scholarship, and the peculiar grace of his diction. No Judge who ever sat on the bench could touch the very heart and soul of a lawsuit with more unerring certainty, and his opinions will live as long as the jurisprudence of the state shall exist.

On the 4th of September, 1823, he was united in marriage to Miss Eliza Morrison, second daughter of William Morrison, who moved from Pennsylvania to Kaskaskia in 1790, and became the most extensive and enterprising merchant in his day in the Mississippi valley.]

The Judge leaves a wife and several children, one of whom, his only son, is an officer of the navy.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer inquires if this "cheering for General Grant cannot be stopped." The same fellows who are making complaint about Grant's noise now, stopped it in 1865 by stacking their arms and agreeing to submit to the Constitution and abide by the laws of the land. They might do it again in the same way. The people intend to have peace, and Grant is a great man for peace.—Inter-Ocean.

THE first car-load of new No. 1 red Winter wheat of this year's crop was sold in this market to-day. It was received from Southern Illinois by Pope & Davis, and by them sold at 95 cents per bushel on the track. The same parties also received the first car-load last season, which brought $1.50 per bushel. The above figures show a wonderful difference in the value of this cereal at the opening of the two seasons.—Chicago Journal.

GRANT IS COMING.

From the Danville News.

On the morning of the 26th instant, while standing in a crowd in front of the Leland Hotel, Springfield, the Macon delegation, headed by a band of music, marched down the street to the hotel, with a transparency on which were several sentences, all referring to Grant. One read,

"GRANT FOR 1880."

This was hailed with great enthusiasm by the crowd, and given three cheers.—In the convention the Grant Glee Club sang a song—original and timely—referring to "Mrs. Jenks," the Potter Committee, &c., the chorus of which was

GRANT IS COMING! COMING!! COMING!!!

This song was received with uproarious applause by the convention and [illegible] to those who had the least power of observation that the Grant tide is sweeping Illinois before it, and that he is to-day the unanimous choice of the state for the presidential contest of 1880.

The fact is, the name of Grant is in the air; the Grant tide is swelling grandly through the country, and indications are that the great American general and statesman will be the nominee of the Republican party in 1880, and will, for the third time, bear the old standard to victory.

I am done. I don't want nothin more. Bascom does nothin but look at his slate, the accounts of which will never be paid, and, weep, and Deckin Pogram hasn't spoke an intelligible word sinse the fatle news struck him. There is a gloom settled onto the Corners the like of wich I havn't seen since Lee surrendered. It don't matter to me whether Tilden or some one else is the Dimocratic nominee in 1880.—The disappointment hez so weighed on to my mind that long before 1880 I shel be in the silent tomb, and it don't matter to me who succeeds Hayes. I don't live ez I hev bin, and the sooner I die the better. Illinois hain't got no muscle nor much intellect. It's flabby. It won't survive me long.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY,
Despairin.

IT is not out of the usual course for the members of Potter's Greasers, and their ally, the Chicago Times, to sneer and ridicule the person of General Noyes. The General was unfortunate enough to lose a leg in the, to them, unholy cause of defending the Union, and it gives them ample reason to call him "the red-faced, beefy, shambling specimen of cheap-John politician"—The facts are General Noyes is the peer of any of his defamers upon that committee. He could beat any of them in an argument, and he could whale the whole cowardly committee with his crutch. He may have a "shambling" walk. That is because Democrats shot off his leg, and he has to use a wooden substitute. The vulgar allusions to his misfortune by members of the committee will not add to their reputation.—The Potter crowd have maligned the name of Gov. Noyes, and he has come a long distance to answer their questions. Let them proceed to their work like men, and not try to cry him down like a lot of blackguards.—Inter-Ocean.

SAYS the Elmira (N. Y.) Advertiser: Ladies who can talk in four languages, and gentlemen who can dance in ten, are very ornamental and they are very expensive, but it seldom happens that they are of any practical use in the world, and when hard times come they are a cumbrance on the earth. Young men with education but no profession or trade, and with families of children to care for, to say nothing of wives who are as fearfully and wonderfully educated as themselves, cannot add much to the prosperity of the county. Their usefulness has been blasted in the very effort to promote it.

REV. MR. NOURSE, the Springfield clergyman, who concluded his proyer at the opening of the Republican state convention, on Wednesday, by appealing to the Almighty that "the best men may be nominated," and, after being nominated, "that they may be elected," was applauded, the convention evidently indorsing the sentiment. In a conversation with some friends afterwards, the honest clergyman explained that he was a Republican, conscientiously believed in that party, and thought it a duty to pray for its success publicly as well as privately. He is right.—Chicago Journal.

ENJOY LIFE.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means for enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worried out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint is the direct cause of 75 per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

POTTERING OVER FLORIDA.

Minister Noyes on the Stand.

His Story of the Count.

Death of Judge Breese.

FOREIGN NEWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 28.—The Potter Committee appointed Messrs. Hunton, McMahon, Springer, Butler and Hiscock a sub-committee to remain in Washington and take testimony, Messrs. Potter, Morrison and Cox will act as a relief for it and the sub-committee in New Orleans.

At the session to-day L. E. Dennis resumed his story. He said that Box No. 2 of the Archer precinct, Alachua county, Fla., was objected to by the Democrats on account of alleged fraud. The inspector of the polls had, in a confidential conversation with the witness, admitted that there had been 219 fraudulent names added to the list of voters, and his knowledge of this fact was partially the cause of his declining to testify as requested by Gov. Noyes. The addition of these 219 names was a matter of public notoriety.

The witness was appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury as an employe in the secret service. His instructions were to examine the records of the United States Courts in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. After resigning this position he was appointed an agent of the internal revenue department, but his commission was cancelled before he entered upon the duties of that office.

The letter of recommendation written by Gov. Noyes was submitted. It is a formal letter of recommendation to Secretary Sherman, mentioning the witness as one of the many Republicans who were ostracised in Florida, and commending his application to the consideration of the Secretary.

The witness never knew of Governor Noyes having put in evidence before the Returning Board anything excepting facts as furnished him. It was the idea of the Southern Republican to impress upon the minds of Northern Republicans that everything was fair and honest in Florida.

To Mr. Butler—The witness believed that the returns in Archer precinct should have shown 219 votes in excess of what they did for the Republican party. The Republican officers made up the deficiency from the registration book, so as to make the returns show their proper number of votes. He believed there had been fraud on both sides. When the votes were turned out of a box the missing number of Republican votes appeared as having been legally cast.

Mr. Dennis was instructed to hold himself in readiness to appear before the Committee at its call, it having been decided that the matter of the manipulation of votes in Alachua county was not yet closed.

Edward F. Noyes, United States Minister to France, testified that he was in attendance upon the Canvassing Board in Florida during the last Presidential election. He did not go at the request or with the knowledge of Governor Hayes, and while there did not receive either telegrams, letters or communication of any sort from Governor Hayes. He took a legal part in the proceedings of the canvass, arguing cases before the Board of Canvassers, etc. He undertook to find out the facts relating to the alleged frauds in Alachua county, Archer Precinct, No. 2, and, owing to parties swearing one way and immediately thereafter directly opposite, he lost all confidence in them, but, finally, from diligent inquiry and the consistent testimony of some forty or fifty Republicans that they had voted the Republican ticket, he reached the honest conclusion that the count as returned was correct. He had asked Dennis to be a witness. He (Dennis) had proved the correctness of the vote in question to the satisfaction of the witness. He did not doubt Dennis' word that he intended to impress upon his (Noyes') mind that it would not be safe for him to go on the stand for the Republicans, owing to his knowledge of the fraud, but that he (witness) could now solemnly swear that no such impression was conveyed by the remarks of Dennis, and Gen. Wallace, who was present at the time, was now in the committee room, and would corroborate his (Noyes) statement. Witness pronounced the statement made by General Cooke before the Florida sub-committee that he (witness), Cowgil, McLin and Gov. Stearns were locked together in the room of the secretary of state before the meeting of the board, an unqualified falsehood. He had no private conference with any of those gentlemen that required locked doors, and with McLin he had no private conference at all.

Gov. Noyes then submitted in evidence two letters written to him by McLin in a very friendly spirit, in which he pictured very elaborately the frauds practiced by the Democrats, and the light which he experienced upon learning the success of the Republican party, and embracing in the last letter the request that the witness should aid him in securing the position of district judge of Florida.

LONDON, June 28.—A Berlin dispatch states that at the sitting of the congress Gortschakoff was present. It was decided, in accordance with a proposal of the Turkish plenipotentiaries, to entrust Austria's task of occupying Bosnia and Herzegovina in the interest of peace, to Europe; the duration of occupation not being fixed, and full liberty being left to Austria in regard to the organization of the provinces. It is believed, however, she will follow plans drawn up at the Constantinople conference. The Congress unanimously adopted a proposal of French plenipotentiaries that Europe should refuse to recognize the independence of Servia unless Servian Jews were relieved from present disabilities. The congress decided to appoint a commission to examine into the question of the aggrandizement of Servia. The aggrandizement of Montenegro will probably be referred to a commission. The congress will hear the views of Greek plenipotentiaries. The general impression in high Russian circles is that the congress will result in temporary relief, but not in a real settlement.

Gortschakoff will remain in Berlin for the present.

LA SALLE, ILL., June 28.—Yesterday afternoon the idle coal miners held a meeting at their hall, at which they were addressed by Mayor McLaughlin, of Braidwood, who advised them to hold no more meetings upon the premises of the Union Coal Company, nor do or say anything that would make them amenable to the charge of intended intimidation. Soon after the meeting, Sheriff Stephens served a circuit court writ of injunction upon the president of the miners' union and eight of the leaders, very strongly enjoining them from any interference with the laboring miners or the business of any coal-mining company. The miners are holding another meeting at the public square this afternoon.

The La Salle Light Guards again escorted the working miners to the Union shaft this morning, but there was no disturbance. It is generally thought there will be no further trouble here.

NEW YORK, June 28.—A letter from Havana says the campaign of the Spaniards against the Cubans, without any battles, cost the former 80,000 men, and the island is a vast cemetery. Five steamers are reported on the way from Spain to carry home troops. Martinez Campos had begun a reduction of government expenses on the island by giving up one-half of his own salary as a Captain General.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Senator Kellogg has been excused from attendance upon the Potter committee until July 7th, or until he has made a visit to Chicago.

It was decided at the Cabinet meeting, to day, to detail Major William J. Twining, to be District of Columbia Commissioner from the Engineer corps of the army, as provided for by the new permanent government law. Major Twining is a native of Indiana.

IMPROVEMENTS AT PRIEST'S MILL.—Some few weeks ago George Priest & Co. shut down steam, for the purpose of making repairs on their mill, which were of such a character as could not be done while the machinery was in motion. The leading feature of the repairs was the introduction of a new bolsting machine, which enables the concern to turn out a better quality of flour than before, which is as good as can be made by any mill in the United States. The machine has now been in operation long enough to thoroughly establish its superiority, and the patrons of this mill may now feel assured that the flour turned out by it cannot be excelled in quality, or discounted in price by any mill in the county. Mr. George Priest and Mr. A. Dolbi, the proprietors of this mill, are both gentlemen well-known to our citizens as gentlemen of industry, and their effort to turn out a superior article will be appreciated.

DR. A. B. SMALL leaves for Belleville this afternoon, to join his family, who have been visiting there for some weeks. They will return in a few days.

FUNERAL OF MRS. OTTO E. CURTIS.

On Thursday [illegible] a gloom was cast over our community by the unexpected announcement that on the evening previous Mrs. Otto E. Curtis had died.—The time fixed for the funeral was on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church. In pursuance of this arrangement, at the hour named the church was filled with the friends and neighbors of the deceased, all of whom felt that they were afflicted by the sad event, and came to mingle their tears with the sorrowing relatives. The high esteem in which deceased was held was attested not only by the presence of so large a number of citizens but by the presentation of most beautiful floral offerings to be used on the occasion.

Among those used in the decoration of the church were the following:

On the front of the pulpit the word "Mattie," in large letters, in which flowers were interwoven; a crescent, a star, a harp, two pillows with the word "Rest" woven into them with white flowers, and a beautiful basket of flowers with the word "Hope" interwoven. In front of the pulpit was an anchor, having a rope of green leaves twined around it, and other floral decorations of the most beautiful design.

The services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Prestley, the pastor of the church of which deceased had been an honored member.

The preliminary services consisted of singing, and reading of select portions of Scripture and prayer, all of which was most appropriate and deeply impressive.

These were followed by an instructive discourse from the words recorded in Mark, 14-8: "She hath done what she could." The discourse, which was, throughout, eminently appropriate to the occasion, concluded with the following touching reference to deceased:

"I have presented one of the most beautiful and attractive phases of life to you this evening, simply because I feel that it is the reflection of that life that has gone out from us and entered life eternal Eliminate love from it and you rob it of its diadem, its crown As a daughter she was devoted. Losing her own mother when but an infant of years, she became deeply attached to the mother of her husband - This attachment became mutual, and so tender, yet so strong, that it became a serious question as to the safety of that invalid mother to reveal the sad truth that the tie had been severed on earth that bound them together.

"As a sister she was deeply devoted, and that to their highest, noblest and best interest. And their grief to day tells how she had twined herself around their hearts, and is identified with the purest and best feelings and promptings of those hearts

"As a friend she had gathered around her strong and devoted friendships And as I saw them come one after another the morning after the death, to look upon her face once more, and as they laid their hand on the latch of the gate, burst into tears, it told it all—more than words could have expressed.

"As a wife we can readily conclude what a woman she was to the man of her choice. It is not strange that he feels his life turned into a desert. It is not strange that wild questionings spring up in his heart, and that life has become almost a blank.

"As a mother it is sufficient to say that motherhood was her earthly glory In this respect she had sipped the cup of joy, in this also she drank of the bitterness of death.

"If thus characterized—thus fitted for doing so much good—you ask why does God remove such an instrumentality?—The presence of that life He has removed its power is still with you—with you today stronger than ever—the power of love—purer because it is now sanctified, and this love cannot, will not die. If it was thus pure, unselfish in your hearts, you will yield to it, now more readily than ever before, because it is clothed in a sanctity that constantly tells of heaven.

"As a Christian she was in many respects well named—"Mary." And all that she enjoyed and suffered was identified with prayer."

At the conclusion of the services at the church the remains were taken to their final resting place, in Greenwood Cemetery, whither they were followed by a large concourse of citizens

THE TRAMPS.—This morning, between 5 and six o'clock, about thirty tramps might have been seen shaking themselves from the slumbers of the night in Thatcher's lumber yard and in cars standing along the track in that vicinity. Each man has a little bundle under his arm which he uses at night for a pillow, and with this under his head he stretches out on the car floor or on the timber, as the case may be, and sleeps as sweetly apparently as he would on a bed of down. There are now about fifty of these migratory characters in town, and when a few leave as many more come to take their place, so that the number is kept good. The supply seems to be inexhaustible, and the probability is that there will be but little falling off in the rank and file of these roving men until the cold weather drives them into winter quarters.

DEATH OF MR. E. PETSCH.—We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. E Petsch, of Forsyth, which took place at his home on the morning of Friday, June 28th. We understand that Mr. Petsch had just recovered from an attack of fever, and that he went about his work sooner than he should have done, which brought on a relapse, from which he died yesterday morning. Deceased was in the mercantile business at Forsyth, and was most highly esteemed as an upright business man and good citizen throughout the circles of his acquaintance. We are not advised as to the family left by him, but his death will be deeply deplored in the community where he resided.

THE COMPETITIVE DRILL.

Last evening came off the prize drill of the Decatur Guards at the court house, an event which had been looked forward to with no ordinary degree of interest, especially by the several squads composing the company, each of course being hopeful of winning the solid silver medal offered as a prize to the best drilled squad, or failing in that to get the five dollar medal offered as the second prize.

There was a very good attendance of citizens to witness the drill, Senator R. J Oglesby, Capt. Byron Barrett and Mr Chas P. Housum, acting as judges. Each squad drilled by itself, and all showed a good degree of skill in military tactics

At the conclusion of the drill, the first prize, a solid silver medal, costing ten dollars, was awarded to the squad under Sergeant J. G. Stauffer, the following named gentlemen composing it. F. D. Provost, H. G. Boyer, Ed Judson, George Fletcher, Roy Loughbon and W F. Colladay.

The second prize, a five dollar medal, was awarded to the squad under Sergeant Frank Boyd, composed of the following gentlemen: W. R. Wise, Harry Scanlan, H F Martin, C H. Walters, F. W. Wismer and Henry Mueller.

Four squads competed, the other two being in charge of Sergeants Wm Stevenson and Wm Muzzy.

After the awarding of the prizes the company formed in line and marched to their armory, in Brenneman's building.—The badges are to be worn by the Sergeants of the winning squads.

A WEDDING IN FRIENDS CREEK.

There was a pleasant wedding party in Friends Creek township, on the 26th of June, at the residence of Mr. Wm. Daves, a few miles northwest of Cisco. The parties directly interested in the affair were Mr. C. C. Crandall, a real estate agent of Maros, and Miss Mattie J. Daves, M. S., of Cisco, Ill. Miss Daves was one of the graduates of Westfield College, Illinois, of the class of 1875, and received the degree of M. S. at the last commencement of Westfield College, June 18, 1878. She acquitted herself honorably as a student and graduate, and for the last three years as a successful teacher. Mr. Crandall attended Westfield College several terms, and is a well known business man in Maros.

A number of relatives and friends witnessed the nuptials, and enjoyed the repast which followed. After a short tour the happy pair contemplate making their residence in Maros, where they will be happy to entertain their friends.

The officiating clergyman was Rev. A. L. Best, of Oreana. FRIEND.

A WARNING TO GARDEN ROBBERS.—We have received the following communication, and as it speaks very plainly for itself, we give it verbatim:

A Secretion that Contaminates the Blood.

When the bile is diverted from its proper channels, into the blood, which is always the case in liver complaints, it ceases to be a healthy secretion, and becomes a poison. Its abnormal presence in the circulation and stomach is indicated by the suffusion of the skin with a hideous saffron tinge, by headaches, vertigo, nausea, pain in the right side and under the right shoulder blade, by indigestion, obstruction of the bowels, and other minor symptoms. Order may be substituted for this state of chaos, and further bodily evil averted by using the beneficent alterative and tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which by relaxing the bowels, promotes the escape from the circulation of bilious impurities; besides rendering the action of the liver regular, and removing every trace of dyspepsia. This pleasant and purely vegetable antibilious medicine is not only infinitely more effective than any form of mercury, but is on account of its freedom from hurtful properties, infinitely to be preferred to that poisonous drug.

We know that a disordered stomach or liver produces more suffering than any other cause. We know that very few physicians are successful in their treatment of these disorders. We know that DeCosta's Radical Cure will, without the shadow of a doubt, almost immediately relieve and permanently cure all of these distressing symptoms. WHY THE HAIR FALLS OUT,

AND HOW TO RESTORE ITS STRENGTH AND COLOR.—Each hair is secreted by a little vesicle or gland, the latter being nourished by a small blood-vessel. As long as these blood-vessels furnish sufficient encouragement the hair will continue to grow; but if from disease or other cause they become torpid or obstructed, the hair will necessarily become dry and fall off. It is here the wonderful virtues of "London Hair Color Restorer" are manifested, as its tonic properties excite those hair follicles to increased activity and completely restore the scalp to a healthy condition, and a fine growth of hair in its natural youthful color is sure to be the result. Apart from its tonic and coloring qualities, "London Hair Color Restorer" is the most cleanly and lasting of all hair dressings, making it indispensable on the toilet of every lady and gentleman. Improvements at Priest's Mill.—Some few weeks ago George Priest & Co. shut down steam, for the purpose of making repairs on their mill, which were of such a character as could not be done while the machinery was in motion. The leading feature of the repairs was the introduction of a new bolting machine, which enables the concern to turn out a better quality of flour than before, which is as good as can be made by any mill in the United States. The machine has now been in operation long enough to thoroughly establish its superiority, and the patrons of this mill can now feel assured that the flour turned out by it cannot be excelled in quality, or discounted in price by any mill in the county. Mr. George Priest and Mr. A. Deihl, the proprietors of this mill, are both gentlemen well-known to our citizens as gentlemen of integrity, and their effort to turn out a superior grade of flour will be appreciated.

FUNERAL OF MRS. OTTO E. CURTIS.

On Thursday morning a gloom was cast over our community by the unexpected announcement that on the evening previous Mrs. Otto E. Curtis had died.—The time fixed for the funeral was on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church. In pursuance of this arrangement, at the hour named the church was filled with the friends and neighbors of the deceased, all of whom felt that they were afflicted by the sad event, and came to mingle their tears with the sorrowing relatives. The high esteem in which deceased was held was attested not only by the presence of so large a number of citizens but by the presentation of most beautiful floral offerings to be used on the occasion.

Among those used in the decoration of the church were the following:

On the front of the pulpit the word "Mattie," in large letters, in which flowers were interwoven; a crescent, a star, a harp, two pillows with the word "Rest" woven into them with white flowers, and a beautiful basket of flowers with the word "Hope" interwoven. In front of the pulpit was an anchor, having a rope of green leaves twined around it, and other floral decorations of the most beautiful design.

The services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Prestley, the pastor of the church of which deceased had been an honored member.

The preliminary exercises consisted of singing, and reading of select portions of Scripture and prayer, all of which was most appropriate and deeply impressive. These were followed by an instructive discourse from the words recorded in Mark, 14-8: "She hath done what she could." The discourse, which was, throughout, eminently appropriate to the occasion, concluded with the following touching reference to deceased:

"I have presented one of the most beautiful and attractive phases of life to you this evening, simply because I feel that it is the reflection of that life that has gone out from us and entered life eternal. Eliminate love from it and you rob it of its diadem, its crown. As a daughter she was devoted. Losing her own mother when but an infant of years, she became deeply attached to the mother of her husband.—This attachment became mutual, and so tender, yet so strong, that it became a serious question as to the safety of that invalid mother to reveal the sad truth that the tie had been severed on earth that bound them together.

"As a sister she was deeply devoted, and that to their highest, noblest and best interest. And their grief to-day tells how she had twined herself around their hearts, and is identified with the purest and best feelings and promptings of those hearts.

"As a friend she had gathered around her strong and devoted friendships. And as I saw them come one after another the morning after the death, to look upon her face once more, and as they laid their hand on the latch of the gate, burst into tears, it told it all—more than words could have expressed.

"As a wife we can readily conclude what a woman she was to the man of her choice. It is not strange that he feels his lite turned into a desert. It is not strange that wild questionings spring up in his heart, and that life has become almost a blank.

"As a mother it is sufficient to say that motherhood was her earthly glory. In this respect she had sipped the cup of joy, in this also she drank of the bitterness of death.

"If thus characterized—thus fitted for doing so much good—you ask why does God remove such an instrumentality?—The presence of that life He has removed its power is still with you—with you to-day stronger than ever—the power of love—purer because it is now sanctified, and this love cannot, will not die. If it was thus pure, unselfish in your hearts, you will yield to it, now more readily than ever before, because it is clothed in a sanctity that constantly tells of heaven.

"As a Christian she was in many respects well named—"Mary." And all that she enjoyed and suffered was identified with prayer."

At the conclusion of the services at the church the remains were taken to their final resting place, in Greenwood Cemetery, whither they were followed by a large concourse of citizens.

The Tramps.—This morning, between 5 and six o'clock, about thirty tramps might have been seen shaking themselves from the slumbers of the night in Thatcher's lumber yard and in cars standing along the track in that vicinity. Each man has a little bundle under his arm which he uses at night for a pillow, and with this under his head he stretches out on the car floor or on the timber, as the case may be, and sleeps as sweetly apparently as he would on a bed of down. There are now about fifty of these migratory characters in town, and when a few leave as many more come to take their place, so that the number is kept good. The supply seems to be inexhaustible, and the probability is that there will be but little falling off in the rank and file of these roving men until the cold weather drives them into winter quarters.

Death of Mr. E. Petsch.—We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. E. Petsch, of Forsyth, which took place at his home on the morning of Friday, June 28th. We understand that Mr. Petsch had just recovered from an attack of fever, and that he went about his work sooner than he should have done, which brought on a relapse, from which he died yesterday morning. Deceased was in the mercantile business at Forsyth, and was most highly esteemed as an upright business man and good citizen throughout the circles of his acquaintance. We are not advised as to the family left by him, but his death will be deeply deplored in the community where he resided.

THE COMPETITIVE DRILL.

Last evening came off the prize drill of the Decatur Guards at the court house, an event which had been looked forward to with no ordinary degree of interest, especially by the several squads composing the company, each of course being hopeful of winning the solid silver medal offered as a prize to the best drilled squad, or failing in that to get the five dollar medal offered as the second prize.

There was a very good attendance of citizens to witness the drill, Senator R. J. Oglesby, Capt. Byron Barrett and Mr. Chas. P. Housum, acting as judges. Each squad drilled by itself, and all showed a good degree of skill in military tactics.

At the conclusion of the drill, the first prize, a solid silver medal, costing ten dollars, was awarded to the squad under Sergeant J. O. Stauffer, the following named gentlemen composing it: F. D. Provost, H. G. Boyer, Ed Judson, George Fletcher, Roy Loughborn and W. F. Colladay.

The second prize, a five dollar medal, was awarded to the squad under Sergeant Frank Boyd, composed of the following gentlemen: W. R. Wise, Harry Scanlan, H. F. Martin, C. H. Walters, F. W. Wismer and Henry Mueller.

Four squads competed, the other two being in charge of Sergeants Wm Stevenson and Wm Muzzy.

After the awarding of the prizes the company formed in line and marched to their armory, in Brenneman's building.—The badges are to be worn by the Sergeants of the winning squads.

A WEDDING IN FRIENDS CREEK.

There was a pleasant wedding party in Friends Creek township, on the 26th of June, at the residence of Mr. Wm. Daves, a few miles northwest of Cisco. The parties directly interested in the affair were Mr. C. C. Crandall, a real estate agent of Maroa, and Miss Mattie J. Daves, M. S., of Cisco, Ill. Miss Daves was one of the graduates of Westfield College, Illinois, of the class of 1875, and received the degree of M. S. at the last commencement of Westfield College, June 18, 1878. She acquitted herself honorably as a student and graduate, and for the last three years as a successful teacher. Mr. Crandall attended Westfield College several terms, and is a well known business man in Maroa.

A number of relatives and friends witnessed the nuptials, and enjoyed the repast which followed. After a short tour the happy pair contemplate making their residence in Maroa, where they will be happy to entertain their friends.

The officiating clergyman was Rev. A. L. Best, of Oreana. Fatend.

A Warning to Garden Robbers.—We have received the following communication, and as it speaks very plainly for itself, we give it verbatim:

Decatur, Ill., June 29, 1878.

More flower stealing in the 4th ward last night. Our city should give their attention to these persons, whoever they are, and find them out. It is becoming too common for people to get up in the morning and find their flower garden stripped of its choicest flowers. They will get lead instead of flowers if they come back again where they were last night.

A Secretion that Contaminates the Blood.

When the bile is diverted from its proper channels, into the blood, which is always the case in liver complaints, it ceases to be a healthy secretion, and becomes a poison. Its abnormal presence in the circulation and stomach is indicated by the suffusion of the skin with a hideous saffron tinge, by headaches, vertigo, nausea, pain in the right side and under the right shoulder blade, by indigestion, obstruction of the bowels, and other minor symptoms. Order may be substituted for this state of chaos, and further bodily evil averted by using the beneficent alterative and tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which by relaxing the bowels, promotes the escape from the circulation of bilious impurities; besides rendering the action of the liver regular, and removing every trace of dyspepsia. This pleasant and purely vegetable anti-bilious medicine is not only infinitely more effective than any form of mercury, but is on account of its freedom from hurtful properties, infinitely to be preferred to that poisonous drug.

WHY THE HAIR FALLS OUT,

And How to Restore its Strength and Color.—Each hair is secreted by a little vesicle or gland, the latter being nourished by a small blood-vessel. As long as these blood-vessels furnish sufficient encouragement the hair will continue to grow; but if from disease or other cause they become torpid or obstructed, the hair will necessarily become dry and fall off. It is here the wonderful virtues of "London Hair Color Restorer" are manifested, as its tonic properties excite these hair follicles to increased activity and completely restore the scalp to a healthy condition, and a fine growth of hair in its natural youthful color is sure to be the result. Apart from its tonic and coloring qualities, "London Hair Color Restorer" is the most cleanly and lasting of all hair dressings, making it indispensable on the toilet of every lady and gentleman. Acre lots, two acre lots, up to five or ten acre lots, in the vicinity of my residence, either for cash or on long time—a very beautiful part of the city for ornamental homes, and yet convenient for all practical purposes of a city residence. H. B. DURFEE.

When you get ready to look at city property I shall take pleasure in showing you what I have for sale. I am offering nothing except what I am directly interested in, and a large portion of which I am the sole owner.

Outside of the City of Decatur I am offering for sale good lots in Cerro Gordo, and one-half to five-acre lots adjoining, and a farm, just across the county line, in Piatt county, all adjoining the town of Cerro Gordo, thirteen miles east of Decatur in the midst of a beautiful and well-improved district of country, with good schools and good churches, and one of the best towns on the Wabash Railway.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.
30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do). I tried —— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.
Of Dr. D. W Gray & Son, Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.
MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles, and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was first introduced ... Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 200 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best informed druggists. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medicinal properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

THE SIAMESE TWINS OUTDONE.

There is now on exhibition in the library of the Aquarium a natural curiosity that far surpasses in wonder the celebrated Siamese twins. It is a pair of twins, with two heads and two pairs of arms, but only a single pair of legs. The trunks are joined at the thighs, the two backbones forming a V. and every part of the children, with the exception of this one freak of nature, is perfect. Their sex is female, and they are pretty little babies, not the dwarfed and puny creatures that are usually exhibited. They are known as the St. Benoit twins, having been born in the Canadian town of that name. The parents are both with the children, and take pride in exhibiting them to the public. They have one other child, a girl of two years, entirely free from blemish. The parents are 27 years old, their names are Drouni, and they can speak no English. The children are 5 months old, and give every promise of growing to womanhood.—New York Times.

"Suppose," said an Iowa lawyer to a witness he was trying to badger recently, "suppose I should tell you that I could bring a dozen men out of your town to the court-room who would say they would not believe you on oath, what would you say?" And calmly the witness replied: "I would say you lied." A gentle smile diffused itself all over the court room, and the unruffled witness stepped down.

One of the Advantages the NEW AMERICAN has over other sewing machines is, the bobbin can be wound without either running the machine or throwing off the belt. Another is, it has a self-threading shuttle.

Many a Dollar, formerly spent on expensive Sulphur Baths, is now saved by substituting therefor GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, which is just as beneficial and infinitely cheaper. Local diseases of the skin, rheumatism and gout are all relieved by this standard remedy. Complexional blemishes are eradicated by it, and it imparts to the cuticle a pearly whiteness and velvety softness which greatly enhances the effect of female charms. Its soothing, antiphlogistic action constitutes a prime remedy for sores, ulcers, cuts, sprains, scalds, bruises, and in fact every abnormal condition of the cuticle attended by inflammation, swelling or itching Ladies moving in our best society speak of its beautifying properties in enthusiastic terms, and give it a decided preference to cosmetics which merely conceal but do not, like GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, eradicate the defects of the complexion. The use of ointments for eruptive complaints is to be depreciated because of their having a tendency to clog the pores and in some cases rather to aggravate than to remedy the disease. They are, besides, seldom thorough enough in their effects to prevent the recurrence of eruptions of an inveterate type and have the disadvantage of soiling the linen of persons who use them. GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, on the contrary, radically cures the diseases to which it is adapted and still further recommends itself on account of its cleanliness. It is, besides, an admirable disinfectant of clothing which has been worn by persons afflicted with diseases of a contagious nature. As a specific preventive and promoter of the general health it presents advantages of the most unequivocal description. Sold by Druggists.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Is the oldest paper in Macon Co., and has

A Larger Circulation

Than all the other papers combined.

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN,

Now in the sixth Year of its existence, long ago ceased to be AN EXPERIMENT, and has come to be regarded as

of Decatur. Its circulation is larger than that of any other daily paper ever published in Decatur, and is not of the fluctuating sort, which characterizes most new papers that are taken a week or two on trial and then dropped; but on the contrary, its readers are in a large degree made up of the very best class of our citizens, who subscribe and pay for the paper

BY THE YEAR.

A glance at its advertising columns will show that this fact is realized by our patrons, who are among the oldest and best of our business men, and who make their contracts for advertising like they place their insurance,

(BY THE YEAR)

Thereby testifying their faith in the permanency of the REPUBLICAN

It is now over ten years since the

Weekly Republican

Has established, and in all those years it has never missed an issue nor been behind time in its day of publication. Its success has been

and its circulation was never equaled, or even approached, by any other newspaper published in Decatur. Its circulation to-day is as large as that of either of its contemporaries a fact well understood and appreciated by advertisers.

The reasons for the marked degree of success which has attended the history of the REPUBLICAN are in no sense mysterious. The aim of its publishers has ever been to furnish to their readers such a newspaper as could be safely read in the family circle; a newspaper bearing upon its pages the news of the day in a form as attractive as was possible to maintain; a paper that should be the organ of no party, clique, or cabal—in short; a newspaper. They have not fallen into the too common error of imagining that the world was suffering and starving to learn their opinions, nor have they attempted to arrogate to themselves the leadership of every movement that engaged the attention of the public for the time being. Neither have they attempted, during political campaigns, to control the action of conventions, or to dictate the nomination of candidates. In a word, they have honestly endeavored to make the REPUBLICAN an impartial observer and recorder of passing events. The fact that the people have so emphatically endorsed this line of policy is the strongest argument that could be offered for its continuance.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do). I tried —— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles, and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 200 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medicinal properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

THE SIAMESE TWINS OUTDONE.

There is now on exhibition in the library of the Aquarium a natural curiosity that far surpasses in wonder the celebrated Siamese twins. It is a pair of twins, with two heads and two pairs of arms, but only a single pair of legs. The trunks are joined at the thighs, the two backbones forming a V, and every part of the children, with the exception of this one freak of nature, is perfect. Their sex is female, and they are pretty little babies, not the dwarfed and puny creatures that are usually exhibited. They are known as the St. Benoit twins, having been born in the Canadian town of that name. The parents are both with the children, and take pride in exhibiting them to the public. They have one other child, a girl of two years, entirely free from blemish. The parents are 27 years old, their names are Drouni, and they can speak no English. The children are 5 months old, and give every promise of growing to womanhood.—New York Times.

"Suppose," said an Iowa lawyer to a witness he was trying to badger recently, "suppose I should tell you that I could bring a dozen men out of your town to the court-room who would say they would not believe you on oath, what would you say?" And calmly the witness replied: "I would say you lied." A gentle smile diffused itself all over the court room, and the unruffled witness stepped down.

One of the Advantages the NEW AMERICAN has over other sewing machines is, the bobbin can be wound without either running the machine or throwing off the belt. Another is, it has a self-threading shuttle.

Many a Dollar, formerly spent on expensive Sulphur Baths, is now saved by substituting therefor GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, which is just as beneficial and infinitely cheaper. Local diseases of the skin, rheumatism and gout are all relieved by this standard remedy. Complexional blemishes are eradicated by it, and it imparts to the cuticle a pearly whiteness and velvety softness which greatly enhances the effect of female charms. Its soothing, antiphlogistic action constitutes a prime remedy for sores, ulcers, cuts, sprains, scalds, bruises, and in fact every abnormal condition of the cuticle attended by inflammation, swelling or itching. Ladies moving in our best society speak of its beautifying properties in enthusiastic terms, and give it a decided preference to cosmetics which merely conceal but do not, like GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, eradicate the defects of the complexion. The use of ointments for eruptive complaints is to be depreciated because of their having a tendency to clog the pores and in some cases rather to aggravate than to remedy the disease. They are, besides, seldom thorough enough in their effects to prevent the recurrence of eruptions of an inveterate type and have the disadvantage of soiling the linen of persons who use them. GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, on the contrary, radically cures the diseases to which it is adapted and still further recommends itself on account of its cleanliness. It is, besides, an admirable disinfectant of clothing which has been worn by persons afflicted with diseases of a contagious nature. As a specific preventive and promoter of the general health it presents advantages of the most unequivocal description. Sold by Druggists.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Is the oldest paper in Macon Co., and has

A Larger Circulation

Than all the other papers combined.

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN,

Now in the sixth Year of its existence, long ago ceased to be AN EXPERIMENT, and has come to be regarded as

of Decatur. Its circulation is larger than that of any other daily paper ever published in Decatur, and is not of the fluctuating sort, which characterizes most new papers that are taken a week or two on trial and then dropped; but on the contrary, its readers are in a large degree made up of the very best class of our citizens, who subscribe and pay for the paper

BY THE YEAR.

A glance at its advertising columns will show that this fact is realized by our patrons, who are among the oldest and best of our business men, and who make their contracts for advertising like they place their insurance,

(BY THE YEAR)

Thereby testifying their faith in the permanency of the REPUBLICAN.

It is now over ten years since the

Weekly Republican

Has established, and in all those years it has never missed an issue nor been behind time in its day of publication. Its success has been

and its circulation was never equaled, or even approached, by any other newspaper published in Decatur. Its circulation to-day is as large as that of either of its contemporaries, a fact well understood and appreciated by advertisers.

The reasons for the marked degree of success which has attended the history of the REPUBLICAN are in no sense mysterious. The aim of its publishers has ever been to furnish to their readers such a newspaper as could be safely read in the family circle; a newspaper bearing upon its pages the news of the day in a form as attractive as was possible to maintain; a paper that should be the organ of no party, clique, or cabal—in short, a newspaper. They have not fallen into the too common error of imagining that the world was suffering and starving to learn their opinions, nor have they attempted to arrogate to themselves the leadership of every movement that engaged the attention of the public for the time being. Neither have they attempted, during political campaigns, to control the action of conventions, or to dictate the nomination of candidates. In a word, they have honestly endeavored to make the REPUBLICAN an impartial observer and recorder of passing events. The fact that the people have so emphatically endorsed this line of policy is the strongest argument that could be offered for its continuance.
